PROVERBS 31:23-31

23. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
24. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
25. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
26. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
27. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
28. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
29. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
30. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.
31. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Your Silent Endurance Will Blossom Into God's Promised Joy!

Sis. Angeline

Greetings in the name of our Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ, to all the extended family members of Echo of His Call Ministries.

Mother's Day is not merely another celebration; it is a special time to honour and recognise the women who carry their burdens in silence, who endure without complaint, and who have often set aside their own dreams so that the dreams of others may come true.

When I speak of "Mother," I do not refer only to women who have biological children. I also honour spiritual mothers and every woman who carries, nurtures, protects, and continues to believe - even when it hurts. I would also like to acknowledge fathers who lovingly take on the role of mothers in many families.

A very happy and blessed Mother's Day to each one of you.

Echo of His Call

Dearly beloved in the Lord,

Greetings to you in the matchless name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ!

Last month, many were blessed and delivered from sin, poverty, and sickness through our ministries. May the Lord bless everyone who was involved, whether directly or indirectly, in these ministries. The Lord has created us to reveal His glory to the world: I have formed these people for Myself; they shall declare My praise (Isaiah 43:21).

Great rewards await those who labour for Him. The Lord has promised, ... I will give men in exchange for you, and people in exchange for your life. Isaiah 43:4.

Vacation Bible School (VBS) Training Programme at our Main Church

A Vacation Bible School (VBS) Training Programme for those involved in Vacation Bible School Ministries during April-May this year was conducted on 19th March 2026 at our main Church. Approximately 150 participants from various Churches attended the training and were greatly blessed.

As a result of such preparatory training, Vacation Bible School Programmes are conducted in various Churches across India for children without denominational discrimination. It is our principal duty to pray for and support the missions, Churches, and individuals engaged in children's ministries. Preach the Word! Be ready in season and out of season... 2 Timothy 4:2.

Vacation Bible School has proven to be a powerful tool. Many educationalists, industrialists, and politicians in India have attended Vacation Bible School during their childhood. Those who serve in Vacation Bible School Ministries with dedication, love, and vision will surely raise a godly generation for the future of our nation and the world. Failure in this responsibility may result in the rise of a perverse generation that opposes the Gospel.

Kindly uphold us in your prayers, that the Lord will strengthen us in challenging times and help us overcome every hurdle victoriously. We look to the Lord for His provision in areas such as continuous financial support, committed workers, a favourable political environment, and His special anointing and blessing.

Grace be with you. Amen!

In Christ Jesus, your brother,

Pr. S. Sam Selva Raj.

GOD AS A MOTHER!

The Bible often refers to God using the imagery of a father. However, Scripture also reveals the tender, nurturing, and compassionate nature of God through the imagery of a mother.

- God comforts His people just as a mother comforts her child (Isaiah 66:13).
- God is portrayed as a nurturing and caring mother who nourishes her children (Isaiah 66:11).
- God is likened to a fierce mother defending her cubs, demonstrating His protective love (Hosea 13:8).
- Even if a mother were to forget her child, God declares that He will never forget His people (Isaiah 49:15)
- God longs to gather and protect His children like a hen gathering her chicks under her wings (Matthew 23:37)

These passages remind us that God's love includes both the strength of a father and the tenderness of a mother. We could go on speaking about the caring and nurturing attributes of God, which reveal His deep and compassionate heart toward His children.

SARAH LAUGHED!

Every mother in Scripture experienced a moment when God stepped into the ordinary rhythm of her life with an extraordinary promise. For Sarah, that moment came at the entrance of her tent.

The Bible records in Genesis 18:12:

So Sarah laughed to herself, as she thought, 'After I am worn out, and my master is old, will I now have this pleasure?'

God saw that moment.

Likewise, Abraham also laughed when God promised him a child. Genesis 17:17 says:

Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed and said in his heart, 'Shall a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?'

Although both of them laughed upon hearing the same promise, God's response to their laughter was different. Here, I would like to focus on Sarah's laughter.

After Sarah laughed, God asked a timeless question:

Is anything too hard for the Lord? ... Genesis 18:14.

What a profound prophetic and rhetorical question! It is not merely a question, but a powerful declaration of God's limitless power and sovereign authority.

What we must notice here is this:

- Sarah laughed

ECHO OF HIS CALL,

 Cell: (+91) 98412 71858 / 98410 71858 E.mail: sam@echoofhiscall.org

- Not loudly
- Not publicly
- But quietly within herself.

And yet, God heard it.

This message is for every mother - biological, adoptive, spiritual; for those who are waiting, grieving, or still believing:

- Those who smile outwardly but carry hidden tears
- Those who bear silent disappointments in their hearts
- Those who have laid aside their dreams because of age, timing, or pain
- Those who feel unseen, unappreciated, forgotten, or perhaps even "too late".

Dear children of God, the Lord desires to deal with the hidden places of a mother's heart - not to expose them, but to heal and restore them.

1. MOTHERS CARRY SILENT LAUGHTER!

The Bible says in Book of Genesis 18:12, ... Sarah laughed within herself ...

Mothers are masters of silent laughter. We rarely reveal or share our deepest emotions. Instead, we often say:

- ☞ "I'm fine," when we are completely exhausted.
- ☞ "It's okay," when we are deeply hurting.
- ☞ "I've moved on," when we are still waiting.
- ☞ "I don't need it anymore," when our hearts are still longing for it.

Perhaps that is why people often say that women are difficult to understand. Here we see that

Sarah's laughter was the laughter of:

- Disappointment
- Delay
- Pain
- Self-protection.

Her laughter was shaped by years of sorrow and disappointment. Those taunting eyes, the sharp and accusing words, and the constant attempts to "spiritualize" her situation - while labeling her a curse - must have slowly hardened her heart over the years, making her guarded, cold, and emotionally withdrawn.

So when she finally heard the promise of God - that she would one day become a mother - I do not believe she had anything left within her to celebrate.

Many of us, not only mothers, laugh in this same quiet way - not because we doubt God, but because we are protecting our hearts.

Yet here is the beautiful truth: God heard that laughter.

Sarah was inside the tent when this happened. Her laughter was hidden, unseen by human eyes, yet God still saw it and heard it.

And when God confronts such moments in our lives, He does not do so to shame us - but to heal us.

2. GOD CHALLENGES A MOTHER'S DOUBT!

There is a striking difference between Abraham's laughter and Sarah's laughter. Abraham laughed in wonder, the news. Sarah, however, laughed out of pain and disappointment.

Why did God ask Sarah, "Why did Sarah laugh?"

Do you think God did not know why she laughed? Do you think He did not understand her pain?

Even in the New Testament, when Jesus Christ was about to heal a blind man, He asked a similar question. In Mark 10:51 He said, 'What do you want me to do for you?' ... The blind man replied, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." What else could he possibly ask for?

God asks us such questions not because He is not aware, but because - like Sarah - we may not realize when or how unbelief has quietly settled into our hearts.

God immediately confronted Sarah:

... Why did Sarah laugh and saying, 'Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?'

Genesis 18:13.

His rebuke was not punishment - it was revival. Sometimes God must confront a mother in order to reignite her faith.

Dear friends, remember: God confronts us for

- the child we are still praying for
- the promise we stopped expecting
- the identity we stopped believing in
- the future we quietly gave up on
- the dreams we have lost.

He was awakening a womb that had shut down.

He was reviving a faith that had grown numb.

3. GOD'S WORD FINDS A MOTHER ANYWHERE!

I love the fact that God sees us wherever we are. Abraham was outside the tent, whereas Sarah was inside. Yet God spoke in that very place.

In the same way, Jesus Christ saw Philip under the fig tree.

God did not call Sarah to come out of the tent.

He spoke to her right where she was. Amen! God speaks to us wherever we are.

Most of us remain hidden - overwhelmed with work, constantly caring for someone, and quietly carrying our responsibilities.

Yet God speaks to mothers:

- In kitchens
- In cars
- In workplaces
- In prayer closets
- In hospital rooms
- In midnight tears
- In silent battles
- In the midst of broken dreams

Dear children of God, do not lose hope. He sees you no matter where you are. You may hide from your family, your friends, or even from the world - but you cannot hide from God. He watches over us with the tender care of a mother.

4. GOD RESTORES A MOTHER'S HEART BEFORE THE PROMISE COMES!

Faith had to be conceived in Sarah's heart

Before Isaac could be conceived in Sarah's womb, faith had to be conceived in her heart. Sarah was about to carry the greatest promise of God for mankind. Before this could happen, God had to do a work within her.

God asked her, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?"

This was not a question of ability; it was a question of alignment.

God was saying:

- Mother, I need your heart healed
- I need your hope restored
- I need your faith awakened

- I need your spirit opened again
- I want you to begin believing that I can do the impossible.

Dear children of God, we cannot give birth to what we no longer believe.

God is speaking to some of us who have lost hope and feel numb because of repeated and long-lasting hurts. I want to encourage you: God is waiting for us to align ourselves with His plan. If our vision is not aligned with God's vision, He cannot perform what He intends to do in our lives.

God is working in some of our lives right now. While waiting for His promise to be fulfilled, rather than becoming discouraged or doubting God, let us reexamine ourselves and align our lives with His will.

5. GOD TURNS A MOTHER'S DOUBT INTO A MOTHER'S DESTINY!

This month, I pray that God will turn our doubts into our destiny. Sarah once doubted the promise of God, but God turned everything around at the appointed time. I pray that this will be your appointed time as well.

PIT TO PALACE

(Life experiences of Pastor S. Sam Selva Raj)

“Whoever reads, let him understand” (Matthew 24:15)

... WHOEVER TRUSTS IN THE LORD, HAPPY IS HE. Proverbs 16:20.

After the initial years of my ministry, I developed a deep desire to understand how Christian ministers in foreign nations lived - how they nurtured their spiritual lives and carried out their ministries. However, in those days, I lacked financial resources, public support, and even the confidence in my own spiritual abilities.

To my own surprise, while recording my plans in my diary in 1989, I found myself writing that I would visit Malaysia in the month of August. Soon after, I completely forgot about it for nearly three months. One day, when I happened to look through my diary again, I realized that the date I had written was fast approaching. I was perplexed and did not know what to do, so I committed the matter to the Lord in prayer.

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; Philippians 4:6.

Days passed, yet nothing happened. I was fully aware that I was not qualified to go abroad and minister. Still, I did not lose my faith in God.

During that time, I had the opportunity to meet a brother who frequently traveled to countries like Malaysia to minister the Word of God. I shared with him my desire to go abroad. He advised me to visit his house in Chennai for further guidance. Accordingly, one early morning, I traveled a long distance to meet him. However, he told me he was occupied and asked me to return the next day. When I went again, he asked me to come on another day. This continued for nearly a month, costing me considerable time and money. Eventually, I realized that he was unwilling to help me.

Later, he said to me bluntly, “You cannot go to Malaysia. Only gifted and capable people like me can go there. No one in Malaysia will accept you. Do not come to me again.”

Despite this discouragement, I did not lose hope. I continued to pray and waited patiently for God's will to unfold.

Two weeks later, as I was going through the letters in my office, I found one from Malaysia. It was from late Pastor Devarajulu, who was ministering there. His letter read:

My dear brother in Christ, Bro. Sam Selva Raj,

I am fond of books, and today I visited a shop that sells old books. While searching for something useful, I came across a torn copy of your magazine, “Echo of His Call.” As I began reading it, I felt the Lord speaking to me directly.

Kindly send me your earlier issues as well; I will bear the postal expenses. I would also like to meet you in person. I am willing to arrange and cover your travel, food, and accommodation here in Malaysia.

Furthermore, I will make arrangements for you to minister in Singapore and Indonesia. We need ministers of God like you. Please reply at the earliest.

*With love,
Pastor Devarajulu*

Just as I had written in my diary, I was able to visit Malaysia in August 1989 through late Pastor Devarajulu's invitation. From there, I also traveled to Singapore and Indonesia, where I preached to hundreds about sin, curses, poverty, and the deliverance offered through the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord graciously enabled me to build lasting friendships with many ministers in those countries - friendships that continue to this day.

In His abundant grace, the Lord further opened doors for me to visit nations such as South Africa, the United States, England, Scotland, France, Germany, Switzerland, Canada, Australia, and Sri Lanka. I have had the privilege of preaching to thousands about Jesus Christ.

Today, I receive invitations from many countries, more than I can accept due to time constraints. Such is the extent to which God has blessed me.

Dear reader, the Lord Jesus Christ whom I proclaim is the true God. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Trust in Him. Come to Him. Dedicate yourself to His service. He will guide you in marvelous ways and bless your life abundantly.

He turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters (Psalm 114:8).

Genesis 21:6 - ... 'God has made me laugh, so that all who hear will laugh with me.'

- ✓ The same woman who once laughed in doubt now laughs in destiny.
- ✓ The same mouth that whispered unbelief now proclaims a testimony.
- ✓ The same womb that was barren now carries the promise.

God turned:

- Her pain into joy
- Her doubt into faith

- Her silence into celebration
- Her hidden laughter into a public testimony

This is what God does for you and for me.

When God stepped into the lives of these mothers, something extraordinary happened:

Mary, the mother of Jesus Christ	the promise of a Saviour
The mother of Samson	the promise of a deliverer
Elizabeth, the mother of John	the promise of a reformer
Sarah, the mother of Isaac	the promise of a new legacy

Friends, it may have seemed as though God interrupted their lives and created chaos and confusion. But at the right time - God's appointed time - He fulfilled His promise.

Do not lose heart. If He could do it for them, He can do it for you too.

God sees you and hears you right where you are. You may be hidden from the sight of this world, but you are never hidden from the sight of God.

God is confronting your hidden places not to expose you, but to empower you. He is asking you the same question He asked Sarah:

"Is anything too hard for the Lord?"

Today, let our faith rise again.
