THE HOLY BIBLE
Please memorize this portion
Psalm 34:1-10

1. I will bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2. My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
3. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.
4. I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.
5. They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
6. This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
7. The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
8. O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
9. O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.
10. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

THERE IS A SAVIOUR TO DELIVER YOU! DO NOT FEAR!!

Sis. Jesy Veena Sam

Our Lord, who is also our Savior, leads us in these days. In Biblical times, the same Lord God heard the people's cry, listened to their supplications, saved them from all dangers, and granted them salvation. Let's explore how He rescued some people through individuals mentioned in the Bible.

1. MOSES!

Let's first examine how Moses rescued the people of Israel and from what kind of situation. The second chapter of Exodus tells us about the birth of Moses. Due to Joseph, the people of Israel initially enjoyed

Annual Day of St. Paul's Matriculation School

We are pleased to report the success of the Annual Day Celebrations at our St. Paul's Matriculation School, which took place on March 2nd, 2024. The students showcased their talents during the event, and it was attended by many parents, children and residents from the surrounding areas. It resembled a convention and deliverance meeting, and we are grateful for your ongoing prayers.

We hosted a special Children and Youth Rally on March 3rd, 2024, at the campus of St. Paul's Matriculation School. Approximately 100 members attended the program, which included special songs, testimonies, and messages.

Prayer for students appearing Public Examination

We regularly meet with young children every Sunday after the church services. These children are raised in God's way. We are in need of more students, good teachers, and leaders for our St. Paul's Matriculation School and Nehemiah Bible Colleges in Hindi and Tamil languages. Additionally, we require more readers for the monthly newsletter, Echo of His Call, in all 16 languages. Please provide us with more addresses of your friends and relatives, so we can send Echo of His Call in their own languages free of cost. We also need more readers for Echo of His Call in Urdu language. Your assistance in any way, big or small, will be greatly appreciated, and you will be rewarded by God.

We continuously pray for peace and prosperity in all countries of the world. In particular, we pray for the spiritual prosperity of India. We ask for God's blessings to shower upon you, your family, and your country.

Nehemiah Bible College Board Meeting

Our Nehemiah Bible College Faculty members meet every month under the leadership of Rev. M. Muthu, Chairman, and our newly joined Senior Principal Rev. J. John Rajarathnam to discuss development and routine activities.

We always cherish in the Lord to receive your emails, letters, phone calls, etc., which give us strength to move forward in the spiritual warfare. We need your special prayers for our Office Staff, Church members, Associate Editors, Pastors, Evangelists, Students in our children's Sunday School, Village High School, and Bible Colleges, Printing Press staff, office staff, as well as our family members. Several workers are not well physically, please remember them in your prayers.

God bless you in abundance.

freedom in Egypt. However, they later became slaves in the same nation, subjected to harsh treatment and great sorrow. They realized their mistakes and cried out to the Lord.

The Lord had foretold Abraham that the people of Israel would be slaves in Egypt for 400 years (Genesis 15:13). In Genesis 15:16, it was prophesied, "But in the fourth generation, they shall return here." The Lord, true to His promise, heard the cries of the Israelites.

Unable to endure their pain, they pleaded, "O Lord! Be merciful to us and save us from the evil hands of Pharaoh. When will we inherit the land of Canaan, flowing with milk and honey, as promised to our ancestors? When can we worship our Lord in freedom and offer sacrifices?"

The Lord, who tests His people but never beyond their ability, heard their cry. Despite their waywardness, whenever the Israelites repented and cried to the Lord for mercy, His loving heart listened and showed mercy.

Kindly Pray!

Summer Vacation Bible School will be conducted by our ministries all over India during the months of April and May 2024. We need your prayer.

The Lord had chosen Moses as the deliverer of the Israelites from the mighty hand of Pharaoh. Moses, designated as the Savior from his mother's womb (Psalm 139:16), was miraculously protected when all male children below two years old were ordered to be killed in Egypt. Moses' mother hid him until he was three months old, at which point it became impossible to conceal the baby any longer. She then placed him in a box made of bulrushes and gently pushed the box into the Nile River, which was known to be full of crocodiles.

Raised as a Prince in Pharaoh's palace, Moses later fled to the desert after accidentally killing an Egyptian and discovering his Hebrew identity. God drew Moses towards Him during his time as a shepherd for 40 years, giving him a vision.

Moses witnessed a burning bush with leaves untouched by fire, prompting him to wonder how such a phenomenon could occur. The plants and leaves were not burned, but the bush was burning. As he approached, God called out, saying, "Moses, Moses, I have heard the cry of the people of Israel. You must go to the Pharaoh in Egypt, speak to him, so that he would release the Israelites and lead them to Canaan, the land promised to Abraham and Isaac. I entrust this task to you."

Initially hesitant, Moses raised questions, expressing concerns about disbelief, his lack of eloquence, and slow speech. Despite his reservations, God assured him, saying, "Go to the Pharaoh, I am with you. Take your brother Aaron and speak."

At times, like Moses, we find ourselves offering excuses when God directs us in specific ways or prohibits certain actions due to selfish motives.

Moses, however, ultimately obeyed God, being chosen to deliver the Israelites from bondage. Face to face, the Lord spoke to Moses as a friend (Exodus 33:11). Performing miracles and wonders, Moses, chosen by the Lord, led the people out of Egypt through the Red Sea.

We read this from the 1st to the 14th chapter of Exodus. However, the Lord God allowed Pharaoh to pursue the Israelites after he had released them. After 430 years (Four generations) in Egypt, the Israelites faced the Red Sea in front, the pursuing Pharaoh and his army behind, and mountains on either side. Overwhelmed, they cried out.

Moses, seeking divine guidance, was instructed by God to divide the Red Sea. As Moses stretched his rod, the waters parted on either side and stood like a wall, creating a path for the Israelites to walk through on dry land. The pursuing army drowned in the sea, showcasing the might and glory of the Lord.

Thus, Moses, acting as a Savior, delivered God's people by parting the sea.

2. OTHNIEL

As recounted in Judges 3:1-11, despite witnessing wonders, the Israelites repeatedly fell into sin, serving foreign gods in Canaan. God's anger led to their subjugation under Cushan-Rishathaim, King of Mesopotamia, enduring eight years of suffering and sorrow as slaves.

Our Lord didn't abandon those who sinned; when the people of God cried out for deliverance, as promised in Isaiah 54:7, "For a mere moment I have forsaken you, but with great mercies I will gather you," the Lord provided a deliverer. "When the children of Israel cried out to the Lord, He raised - Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, as their deliverer. The Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went to war, and the Lord delivered Cushan-Rishathaim, King of Mesopotamia, into his hand, and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim (Judges 3:9,10)." Consequently, the land experienced peace for 40 years, showcasing how the Lord appointed Othniel as a savior for the Israelites during that time.

3. GIDEON!

Now, turning our attention to Gideon, the children of Israel did evil, leading the Lord to deliver them into the hand of the Midian for seven years (Judges 6:1).

Faced with great trouble, the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people of the East would ravage their crops and livestock like numerous locusts. Distressed, the Israelites sought refuge in dens and caves in the mountains (Judges 6:2,4 & 5). In their distress, they cried out to the Lord, who responded by sending a prophet to remind them of His past deliverance from Egypt and oppression, urging them not to fear the gods of the Amorites (Judges 6:8-10).

Even when His people strayed, their cry prompted the Lord to send a chosen individual for their salvation.

We also fail to heed the voice of the Lord. However, when trouble befalls us, we cry out to Him, and in His mercy, He rescues us from our troubles.

To save Israel, God sent an angel who appeared under the Terebinth tree in Ophrah, owned by Joash the Abiezrite. Gideon, Joash's son, was threshing wheat in a winepress to hide it from the Midianites. The Angel of the Lord greeted Gideon, calling him a mighty man of valor. In response, Gideon questioned why they faced adversity if the Lord was with them, expressing doubt in the miracles of their forefathers.

The Lord assured Gideon of his mission to save Israel from the Midianites, despite Gideon's initial reluctance and excuses, similar to Moses -- "Surely, I will be with you and you shall defeat the Midianites as one man" (Judges 6:15-16).

Gideon still struggled to believe and sought a sign from the Lord. After witnessing numerous signs, Gideon and his men engaged in battle against the Midianites.

The Lord cautioned Gideon that if he triumphed with too many soldiers, Israel would claim the glory for themselves. Following the Lord's guidance, Gideon tested the people and retained only 300, sending the rest to their tents (Judges 7:8).

The Midianite camp lay hidden in the valley, and that night, the Lord instructed Gideon to go down, assuring him of victory. "Now, the Midianites and Amalakites and all the people of the east, were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts, and their camels were without number, as the same by the seashore in multitude" - Judges 7:12

Gideon, still apprehensive, was told to eavesdrop on the enemy's conversations, which revealed a dream of a barley loaf causing the collapse of a Midianite tent (Judges 7:10-13).

Dividing his men into three companies, Gideon armed them with trumpets, empty pitchers, and torches. Breaking the pitchers and blowing the trumpets simultaneously, they cried, "The sword of the Lord and of Gideon!" (Judges 7:20).

Despite lacking conventional weapons, the praise-filled cries led to a miraculous victory as the enemies fled in fear, and the Lord turned them against each other (Judges 7:22). This triumph, a gift from the Lord, established Gideon as a savior for Israel, ushering in 40 years of peace.

Amid our troubles, praising God holds transformative power, turning sorrows into joy.

Gideon's role as a savior showcases that God responds to the cries of His people. In times of great trouble, our prayers prompt God to send a savior to protect and deliver.

When tears accompany sorrow, turning to comforting verses like Isaiah 41:10, which says

PIT TO PALACE

(Life experiences of Pastor S. Sam Selva Raj)

"Whoever reads, let him understand" (Matthew 24:15)

JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME

YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER

CAST YOUR BURDEN ON THE LORD, AND HE SHALL SUSTAIN YOU... (PSALM 55:22)

In the year 1969, I had a life-changing encounter with the Lord Jesus, despite my initial resistance to Christianity. This experience led to my salvation, causing a rift between me and my old friends who attempted to harm me. However, the Lord protected me as if I were the apple of His eye.

With numerous promises from God, I moved to Chennai in 1971. My first day in Chennai was a challenging one. I found myself with no acquaintances, forcing me to spend the night on the streets. Filled with fear, I remained awake throughout the night.

Around 2 A.M., two police officers approached me and inquired about my situation. I shared my family background and the story of how the Lord Jesus had transformed my life. While they found no fault in my account, they questioned why I was on the streets at night. One officer suggested taking me to the police station for enquiry, but the other remarked that I appeared to come from a respectable background.

Later, he looked at me and said, "Come with us." They escorted me to the police station and arranged for my accommodation in a garage alongside other Police department workers. He ensured my comfort and expressed, "This is a safe and suitable place for anyone seeking a better life. I feel a strong urge within me to assist you, although I'm uncertain of its source," he added. "There is a snake that frequents this garage every night. However, it has never harmed anyone, so there is no need to worry. If you encounter the snake, please remain still. The divine force guiding you will protect you." I never crossed paths with this police officer again.

As dawn approached, I felt as though I had been stranded in a pit, gripped by fear akin to facing a tiger. Upon learning about the nightly snake visits, I took a glass of water, offered a prayer, and sprinkled the water around the shed while invoking, "Victory in the blood of Jesus Christ." Remarkably, neither insects nor snakes entered the garage throughout my stay, marking it as a secure haven.

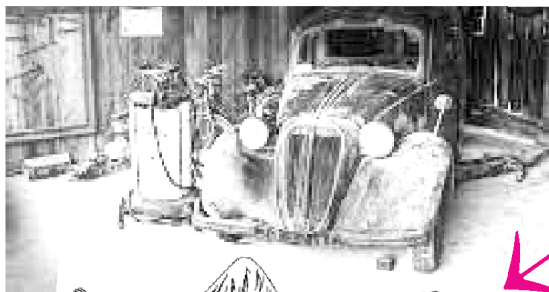

I forged friendships with numerous police officers during my time in the garage. They openly confided in me about their struggles, and through my prayers, many found resolutions to their problems and even embraced Jesus Christ as their personal savior. The divine presence was evident in that place, and as a result, I was treated with great care and respect, experiencing indescribable joy and protection.

The Lord then led me to a different place and assisted me in renting a house. God is benevolent. Those who put their faith in our Lord God will not lack in anything. Jesus Christ remains unchanging, yesterday, today, and forever. He will also work extraordinary wonders in your life.

*As my journey in the desert makes me weary,
I hear my beloved's voice comforting and blessing me.*

*Though the Red Sea rises against me,
The Lord will rescue me and show me a way.
He is sure to deliver and provide new strength,
To defeat and destroy all my adversaries.*

The same God will also bless you!

- "Fear not, for I am with you" and Isaiah 43:4 "Since you were precious in My sight you have been honored" provide solace and inspiration.

Sometimes, when we travel alone, discomfort may settle within us, but when we worry, God speaks to a fellow passenger to help us; at that moment, that person becomes our savior. In hospitals, during our admissions, God sends unfamiliar doctors or nurses to assist us lovingly – these individuals are God-sent saviors. Many of us have experienced such divine interventions in our lives.

The Lord serves as our shade at our right side, offering protection. Faces that sincerely look unto Him are enlightened. Despite our mistakes, we should acknowledge them, reconcile with God, and heed to our conscience.

The era before Moses was characterized by conscience, and through Moses, God provided laws and commandments, guiding us on righteous living.

Now, let's delve into the story of Jonah.

4. JONAH!

Jonah, a prophet in the Bible, was tasked by God to go to Nineveh and warn the people about their wickedness. Disobeying, Jonah boarded a ship to Tarshish, leading to a great wind and tempest.

Realizing Jonah's disobedience, the men on the ship threw him into the sea, where God sent a great fish to swallow him – this fish became Jonah's savior. After three days, the fish vomited Jonah onto Nineveh's dry land.

Jonah, having learned from his mistake, taught the people to abandon sin, leading them to repentance, and thus becoming their savior.

All the saviors we have encountered so far rescued people suffering under godless rulers and those facing consequences due to disobedience. Although these saviors eventually passed away and were buried, people continued in sin. Consequently, God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, in human form. Jesus, sinless, bore the cross, endured whipping, shed His blood, and was crucified, sacrificing His life for our sins. Rising from the dead on the third day, Jesus lives among us, guiding, correcting, and protecting us even when we err, until we reach heaven. His grave remains open, symbolizing eternal life.

Despite our mistakes, Jesus Christ, our Savior, guides, corrects, and protects us, leading us according to His will and watching over us until we reach heaven.

I wish to convey one important message to every loving reader: "Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you ..." (James 4:8).

Furthermore, He has pledged significant heavenly blessings for those who sincerely follow Him and uphold His commandments. He has promised His disciples. "Assuredly, I say to you, in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel" (Matthew 19:28). Who else will receive this remarkable blessing?

As individuals born into sin in this sinful world, we should earnestly follow this Savior who transforms us into holiness. Let us lead lives of sanctity for Him, envisioning a future where we can sit on thrones beside Him and live as judges. Let us commit ourselves and qualify for this extraordinary life. The Lord who has called you is Holy, so conduct yourself in holiness (1 Peter 1:15): "Be holy, for I am holy" (1 Peter 1:16).

May the Lord bless you and guide you. Amen!
